THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 20.

constructed having been selected with great raste. It included a lady's collar with cambric centre and lace edging, and several yards of lace, two and four inches wide. The nest had long, I have been favored. evidently been abandoned by the occupant, whose income was not efficient to justify living in such style as would be required in such a costly residence.

Children are children, as kittens are kittens. A sober, sensible old cat, that sits purring before the fire, does not trouble herself because her kitten is hurrying and dashing here and throughout Virginia and West Virginia. Money there in a fever of excitement to catch its own tail. She sits still and purrs on. People should do the same with children. One of the difficulties of home education is the impossibility of making parents keep still; it is with them, out of their affection, all watch and worry.

The Latest.

Having made my Fall and Winter purchases of CLOTHING, GENTS' FURNISHING STOCK, EXCHANGE AND COLLEC-GOODS, TRUNKS, HATS and SATCHELS, and other goods usually found in a first class Clothing Establishment,

My purchases consist in part of tue finest of American, French, Scotch and English fabrics. Boys', Youth's and Men's Overcoats, of all shades and qualities.
